

The Gunkalunk

The Gunkalunk is a creature resembling the Tasmanian Devil from the Bugs Bunny Show, but with razor-sharp teeth and a single, glowing red eye in the center of its forehead. Parents can summon the Gunkalunk if their children refuse to go to bed.

The Gunkalunk has the ability to pass through walls, windows, and doors, seeking out children to bite their fingers. However, children are safe within their bedrooms, which are shielded by a protective "force field." This impenetrable barrier ensures nothing evil can enter, allowing children to sleep peacefully and enjoy sweet dreams, confident in their safety.
